VIRGINIA CAVALCADE

VOLUME FIFTEEN
Summer 1965 - Spring 1966

Published Quarterly
by the
Virginia State Library
Richmond, Virginia

CONTENTS OF VOLUME FIFTEEN

Number One, Summer 1965

Sword of Honor ..... William H. Gaines, Jr. 5
Virginia awarded a handsome weapon to a native son, in recognition of his heroism on a foreign shore.

Quoits, the Sport of Gentlemen ..... Edmund Berkeley, Jr. 11
The informal Buchanan Spring club provided a robust Saturday entertainment for Richmond's leading citizens.

General Cocke and the Temperance Crusade ..... Raymond H. Pulley 22
The master of Bremo led the first campaign against alcohol in Virginia.

Virginia Indian Mounds ..... Howard A. MacCord, Sr. 28
Archeology reveals facts and destroys fables about the people who built mounds.

The Baltimore Boats ..... Ames W. Williams 32
Tidewater Virginia villages depended on the steamers to supply their needs.

Mrs. Liston Returns to Virginia ..... Irene J. Murray 40
The British minister and his wife made a second Southern tour in 1800 to see the Natural Bridge.

Number Two, Autumn 1965

In and out of Virginia ..... Robert L. Scribner 4
Alexandria was orphaned by an act of her son.

Trapezium House ..... Bartlett Roper 9
A curious Petersburg building reflects the eccentricities of its mysterious builder.

Cars Across the Countryside ..... Milton W. Buffington 14
Ambitious railway promoters envisioned cities connected by swift electric transit lines.

George Nicholas, Virginia Patriot ..... James H. Bailey 23
This youthful critic of Thomas Jefferson became his loyal and valued lieutenant.

Sarah Henry at Winton ..... Ruth H. Blunt 34
Samuel Meredith's family circle was deeply influenced by a beloved mother-in-law.

Captain Robert B. Pegram: Hero under Four Flags ..... Edward F. Heite 38
His heroic deeds in China endeared him to the British and helped the Confederacy.

A Romantic Pilgrimage ..... Craig Gilborn 44
Blandford's crumbling ruins reflected the mood of an age.

Number Three, Winter 1966

Extra Billy Smith ..... Edward F. Heite 5
A beloved and eccentric governor met difficult challenges with unusual solutions.

Dugout Log Canoes ..... Robert H. Burgess 14
Oystermen around the Chesapeake still use a modern version of the Bay's earliest vessel.

New London ..... Janet Shaffer 22
The old seat of Bedford County witnessed many exciting events during the Revolutionary period.

Arms for the Militia ..... David C. Poteet 30
The Virginia Manufactory was intended to foster "native manufactures."

Henry Howe, Connecticut Yankee 36
Virginia's first social historian set out to make a profit, but he produced a classic.

Number Four, Spring 1966

Scientist on the Bridge ..... Edward F. Heite 4
His orderly rescue of women and children from the storm-swept deck of the Central America made William Lewis Herndon a national hero.

The Ladies Move a Mansion 9
The Colonial Dames rescued Wilton from destruction.

A Portfolio of Wilton ..... A. Bransford Rice, Jr. 18

An Expedition for King and Country ..... William Kennon Kay 30
Patriotism and other motives inspired the General Assembly to answer England's call to arms.

The Armory Scandal ..... David C. Poteet 38
An embittered journalist carried his slanders into the General Assembly.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Virginia 44

The National Society of the Colonial Dames of America in the Commonwealth of Virginia 46